STARY PARAGRAPH.

The Democratic Convention in Lexington, Ky., May 2nd to nominate for the Court of Appeals to be held in August next. Committee selected delegates on May 1st.

The bill will reduce the pay of Assessors to have become a law and much assistance. The fact is that the bill has never passed the House, though it was introduced in the House, and probably never will pass.

The Democratic executive committee has called conventions in each of the three superior court districts, to meet on June 1st, 1890, and nominate candidates for judge of the superior court. The conventions for the first district will be held in Bowling Green for the Second, in Frankfort, and for the Third, in Lexington.

The Lottery bill seems to be practically brought up in the House. It has been referred to a committee, but has not yet been acted upon. The bill is one of the most important of the session.

This state of affairs will be a great disappointment
